Lt. General Marshall S. Carter, USA
Deputy Director of Central Intelligence
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear General Carter:

Thank you very much for the kind invitation from the Director and yourself to enjoy honorary membership in and to share the benefits of the Director's Mess, which I found at my desk when I returned from Albuquerque. I certainly hope that I shall find myself at Langley in the near future with sufficient advance warning to make the appropriate arrangements.

Again, your warm letter is greatly appreciated.

Sincerely yours,

Charles H. Reichardt
